

Election Day

The children will participate in Election Day on Tuesday, November 4th by voting on which snack to make in the morning and enjoy in the afternoon.

This will teach them a little about the democratic process and how the majority wins!