

National Space Day

We will Celebrate National Space Day on Friday, May 8th. The children will read about space and do a variety of activities, like building a rocket ship or making a solar system.

